

Rules and policies for buyers

To help make buying on AMP a safe and enjoyable experience, we've put in place a number of policies and guidelines.

Many of these are based on local legal requirements, but others are based on our experience of what will help ensure a fair marketplace for everyone. So, before you make a counter-offer (or bid) or buy on AMP, read our policies for buyers listed below.

Frequently Asked Questions

What rules and requirements are there for AMP buyers?

When you bid on or buy an item, you're agreeing to the rules we've put in place for our community. You can find out more details on these rules in the articles below.

What kind of items are listed on AMP?

Almost anything you can think of. But there are certain categories of items that we restrict. Check out our list of prohibited and restricted items.

Buying practices policy

Learn about our expectations for buyer behavior on AMP.

Feedback policies

Learn about the guidelines and policies around Feedback to ensure it's used constructively and fairly.

Interfering with a transaction policy

Learn about the rules and guidelines we've established to prevent people from interfering with the completion of transactions.

Invalid bid retraction policy

Read our guidelines on retracting a bid, and why we have rules in place to prevent members gaining an unfair advantage when buying an item.

Offers to buy or sell outside of AMP

Learn why buyers and sellers aren't allowed to use information they've obtained on AMP to contact each other to buy or sell off AMP.

Shill bidding policy

Find out what shill bidding is, and why it isn't allowed on AMP.

Unpaid item policy

Learn about our rules around paying for items after a buyer has agreed to make a purchase.

Unwelcome and malicious buying policy

Learn about the rules we have in place to prevent buyers from attempting to disrupt a listing.